

Command LOAD

After 5 seconds, the CRO will command:

Command START

After 50 seconds, or after all Finalists have fired one (1) shot, the CRO will command:

Command STOP

Announce Immediately after the command "STOP", the Announcer will congratulate the eliminated Finalist for his place and that he has to go out. The Announcer will give again 15-20 seconds of comments on the current ranking of the remaining Finalists and notable scores. Individual scores are not announced. Also the Announcer will indicate who will probably be eliminated next.

This sequence will continue until all 24 shots are fired.

After 12 shots, the lowest ranking Finalist is eliminated (8th place). Elimination continues as follows:

After 14 shots – 7th place; After 16 shots – 6th place; After 18 shots – 5th place; After 20 shots – 4th place

After 22 shots – 3rd place (Bronze medal winner is decided)

After 24 shots – 2nd and 1st places (Silver and Gold medal winners are decided).

When a Finalist is eliminated, he must unload his pistol, insert safety flag, lay it down and step back from the firing point.

A Range Officer must verify that pistol action is open with safety flags inserted.

FINALS COMPLETION

After the 24th shot, the CRO will command:

Command STOP ... UNLOAD

If there are no ties and no protests, the CRO will immediately declare:

Declare RESULTS ARE FINAL

PRESENTATION OF MEDALISTS

The Jury must assemble the three medalists on the FOP and the Announcer will immediately recognize the Bronze, Silver and Gold medal winner.

THE BRONZE MEDAL WINNER, REPRESENTING (NATION), IS (NAME).

THE SILVER MEDAL WINNER, REPRESENTING (NATION), IS (NAME).

AND THE GOLD MEDAL WINNER, REPRESENTING (NATION), IS (NAME).

TIE-BREAKING

If there is a tie for the lowest ranking Finalist to be eliminated, the tied Finalists will fire an additional tie-breaking single shot(s) until the tie is broken. For the tie-breaking shot, the CRO will immediately announce the family names of the tied Finalists and command them to fire the tie-breaking shot with the normal firing procedure.

The Announcer will make no comments until the tie is broken.

Command There is a tie for the lowest ranking Finalist to be eliminated.
The next Command is for (Family Name) and (...) ... ONLY:
FOR THE SHOOT-OFF SHOT ... LOAD ... START ... STOP ... UNLOAD

MALFUNCTION (ISSF Rule 6.17.1.6)

Finalists may have only one (1) ALLOWABLE MALFUNCTION per Final.

If a Finalist has an ALLOWABLE MALFUNCTION (ISSF Rule 6.13.2) during a single shot, a maximum of one (1) minute will be given to repair the malfunction or replace the pistol, after which he will be directed to repeat the shot.

If a Finalist has an ALLOWABLE MALFUNCTION in a 5-shot series and the malfunction can be repaired or the pistol replaced within one (1) minute, any shots fired in that series will be counted and he will be permitted to complete the series within the time remaining when the malfunction was claimed plus additional time equal to the time required to repair the malfunction, but not exceeding one (1) minute.

In case of any EST malfunction, the CRO must wait until the Technical Officer in charge will advice him.

No announcement until the situation is solved.

If a Finalist is unable to fire a shot (malfunction or overtime), the CRO must use the Pellet Discharge Cylinder (PDC).
